MUSEUM OF HISTORY

CALL TO ARTISTS FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Amelia Island Museum of History will be hosting an art exhibition running December 15th, 2017 through February of 2018. We are looking for local artists to submit work inspired by the Art Movements of the 1960's including, but not limited to, Pop Art, Minimalism, Conceptualism & Junk Art. Artists may submit their works - old or new - to the museum (233 S. 3rd St) for consideration no later than Monday, December 4th at 4 pm. All works must be accompanied by an artists' statement explaining their process and their inspiration.

All artists will be invited to speak at an open panel discussion about their works and the impact of the Art Movements of the 1960's at the Grand Opening for this exhibit, which will take place on Friday December 15th at 6 pm, at the Amelia Island Museum of History. Please contact Liz Taylor at liz@ameliamuseum.org with any questions.
